PHONE STRIKE END MAY BE NEAR; HOUSE APPROVES ANTI-STRIKE BILL NFTW Union Head Offers Proposal To End Tie-Up

WASHINGTON, April 17 — (UP)—The first definite peace feeler put out by the striking telephone workers came today from a top Union officer who offered to call off the 11-day strike if the telephone companies would grant an immediate wage increase of $6 a week.

That proposal was put forward at a mass meeting of strikers in Atlanta, Ga., by Henry Mayer, counsel for the National Federation of Telephone Workers and head of 18 of the 40-odd unions affiliated or co-operating with the NFTW in the strike.

The strikers, estimated variously at 325,000 to 350,000, originally demanded a $12 weekly raise plus other contract benefits.

Mayer said they would go back to work for a $6 "down payment" and leave the final wage settlement and the other union demands to be decided by arbitration.

Mayer indicated the unions would accept an even smaller amount as a token of the companies' willingness to arbitrate.

NFTW spokesmen in Washington said it was the first definite back-to-work figure set by any strike leader. But they emphasized that Mayer's offer was in line with union policy and did not constitute a break in the solid strike front.

Rigid Labor Bill Gets OK in House; Goes to Senate

WASHINGTON, April 17 — (UP)—The House today passed and sent to the Senate the most rigid union control bill in American labor history, despite advance threats of a presidential veto.

The roll call vote was announced as 308 to 107, more than enough to override a veto. It came after the House defeated, 291 to 122, a motion by Rep. Augustine B. Kelley, D., Pa., to send the bill back to the Labor committee.

Besides invoking other curbs, the measure outlaws closed shop contracts and industrywide bargaining, two cardinal precepts of labor doctrine, and is the fruition of a Republican campaign pledge which conservative Democrats helped them carry out.

The veto threat was raised by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D., N.Y., who, fresh from a White House visit, warned that "this bill will earn a veto and justifiably so." Celler denied that Mr. Truman told him to say that.

The far-reaching legislation is much more rigorous than the Senate's embryonic anti-strike bill which is due for floor consideration next week.

It was the outgrowth of crippling strikes in coal, rails, telephones and other major industries, and raises a major issue for the 1948 Presidential campaign.

NO APPEAL PROVISION IN ASB CONSTITUTION

At present the ASB constitution makes no provision giving the council the right to submit an appeal to the court, it was disclosed by members of the Student Council Investigation committee yesterday. This group was formed after the AYD submitted a "Request for Appeal" at Monday's meeting.

Bill McFarland, Bruce McNeill, Tom Wall, and Jim Gualtieri, members of the committee, will meet with ASB President Marty Taylor in his office today at 4:30 to air their findings after investigating the constitution of the Student Council and Court.

The group hopes to discover whether the council can ask the court for a retrial, decide the case themselves, or pick a different body to form a higher court.

The decision will be made at a closed meeting of the council Monday night at the home of Dean Paul Pitman. Jim Gualtieri stated that, "there will be no voting or any controversial matters discussed at this closed meeting. If any should arise they shall be postponed until the following Monday's meeting."

SPARTANS LOSE TO BEARS, 3-0; HITTERS FAIL

Bear pitcher Nino Barnise set the Spartans down with two hits at Ebbett's field in Berkeley yesterday to give the University of California a 3-0 victory.

Jack Marciplan collected the two hits for San Jose. One was a double, the other an infield single.

John Fiscalini gave the Bears their first run in the second inning when he blasted one of Ralph Romero's fast ones for a home run.

Cal scored one more in the fifth and another in the seventh. They gathered a total of six base hits, and committed no errors afield. Barnise struck out eight.

The game was delayed for more than ten minutes in the fifth inning on a decision disputed by Cal's coach, Clint Evans, when the umpire called McClain out for running past his teammate Palmer, between second and third.

The Spartans were guilty of three errors, but none of them cost a run.

Tomorrow the varsity will play San Francisco State college at San Francisco. Game time is 2:15.

Coach Walt McPherson has named Jack Burtner, dependable southpaw, as his probable choice to start on the mound for San Jose.

Engineers Receive New Equipment

Equipment valued at $4500 has been received by the Engineering department during the last two weeks, according to Dr. Ralph J. Smith, department head.

The items, obtained from surplus property agencies in northern California, include: an electric oven, a refrigeration unit, a centrifugal pump and blower, and a western analyzer for transmitting vacuum tubes.

For use in the aeronautics laboratory, Dr. Smith and Mr. S. B. Walton brought back an aircraft fabric sewing machine and a collection of moving cutaway models or aircraft engine components.

The equipment, which cost the college approximately $300, now is stored in the Quonset hut preparatory to completion and construction of experimental setups, according to Dr. Smith.

'30' CLUB TO VISIT SAN FRANCISCO

This will be the first field trip the group has made this year, and the afternoon and evening have been planned to be as instructive and enjoyable as possible," said Miss Mahon.

Today is the last day for sign-ups for the trip as final arrangements must be made by the club's officers. Any member of the "30" club who wishes to go is urged to sign up on the list posted outside the Publications office door before 4 p.m. today.

Fires Controlled In Texas Blast

TEXAS CITY, Tex., April 17 (UP)—Municipal officials said today that all fires were out or under control in this ravaged city, but tonight police evacuated all persons, including firefighters, from the still-burning waterfront area because of a new explosion threat.

Governor Beauford Jester of Texas and the American Red Cross estimated the death toll at from 600 to 650 persons. But only 217 bodies were counted in the morgues here. Houston reported 21—a total of 274. Other nearby towns reported they had no dead but some bodies remained in the ruins.

As the flames and smoke from the burning oil tanks along the water-front subsided, rescue workers were able to approach the devastated Monsanto Chemical company plant where they found new bodies.

MAKE THIS ONE GOOD

That the Associated Student Body of San Jose State college, as a whole, has less unity and definite purpose than any similar group in most of the other colleges and universities in the state, is a recognized and regrettable fact.

Our student government and student activities are promoted by only a small group of students who show enough interest to keep them alive.

Many are the theories concerning the disappearance of "the old college try," which characterized campus life a few years ago.

Some say that the large percentage of veterans and older students now attending college are the cause of it all. Veterans no longer are interested in extra-curricular activities, usually carried on by undergraduates, but only in their own individual problems and interests, these analysts of the situation contend.

Others blame the lack of interest in student body affairs on the myriad separate organizations which, they say, keep students so busy with other activities that they have no time to devote to campus activities in which larger numbers of students can participate.

No matter what the cause or the cure for the present lack of spirit or singleness of purpose in the student body, the fact still remains that the annual celebration of Spardi Gras is the only student activity in which every individual can take part.

For some unaccountable reason, most of the emphasis has been placed on organizational participation in this so-called all-college event.

While it is true that the various organizations do play an important part in sponsoring the many Spardi Gras activities, it must be remembered that a large percentage of those persons who attend Spardi Gras are "independents" who belong to no sorority, fraternity, or other campus group. Every year these students attend Spardi Gras, ogle what sights are to be seen, wander around among the concessions, and go home wondering what all the ballyhoo is about.

This year Doug Morrison, chairman of Spardi Gras, has thought it advisable to remove some of the secrecy formerly surrounding organizational participation in Spardi Gras, in order that students who have no affiliations with any campus group may see what goes on.

In previous years Spardi Gras "secrets" were considered necessary in order that the brotherhood and sisterhood of organizations, within the walls of Sparta, be kept from stealing ideas from each other about what sort of costumes and concessions were to be sponsored by each.

With these secrets done away with, the foundation for a lot of petty enmity and hard feeling between groups will disappear. Everyone will know from the start just what the deal is going to be. The committees that have been appointed to administer the affairs of the student body for the celebration will be more able to act as referees in matters of controversy.

Those who are worried about the basic honesty of their fellow students may rest assured that none of their ideas for original and sensational Spardi Gras stunts will be stolen.

We believe that a wide open and honest policy regarding entries, concessions, and events taking place at Spardi Gras this year will make the celebration bigger and better than ever before.

I. A. Group Exhibits Work In Library

Epsilon Pi Tau, recently re-activated Industrial Arts honor fraternity, is now showing in the library the first in a series of monthly project displays. Woods woodworking design, and phases of manufacture are included in the display.

There are several classifications to the exhibit. Included are: forest and forest production, wood-working joints, fasteners, panels of various types of wood, a variety of wood finishes and the making of baseball bats.

Starting with a block of wood the baseball bats are shown in the various stages of production including the finished varnished product. Posters are displayed to illustrate how selective logging of the United States' commercial forests can provide for the future woodcraft industry.

Members of Epsilon Pi Tau worked on the features of the display as their monthly project. According to Frank Taylor, club president, their purpose for the exhibit is to acquaint the student body with activities and projects of the Industrial Arts department.

WANTED—A TURTLE OBJECTIVE—PET

"We aren't allowed any noisy pets out here at the Spartan City, so we were wondering if anyone would please bring us a nice turtle, anything over five inches long," said Francis Wildman, aero-engineering major who lives at 145 East Spartan City.

Fran and his wife, the former Tommy Alexander who received her special secondary here at San Jose State College, are very desirous of obtaining a pet, and they don't feel that goldfish or canaries will quite fill the bill.

Fran and his brother used to share in the affections of a little Scotty dog, whom they named "Snafu", and unless someone can think of a better name, Fran intends to use some Marine Corps slang, to wit: "Gizmo", to name his turtle, that is if he can get one.

"I really do wish that we could have someone get us a turtle, as we are quite sincere about having some kind of a pet. According to 'Doc' Rhodes, a turtle would be a very good pet," Fran concluded.

He asks that anyone willing to help himself and his wife find some nice turtle over five inches long, let him know.

The Wildman's arranged a nice damp place for it under their house in Spartan City, and they would really like a turtle.

LOOK! NO HANDS

Automatic parking methods, now proving successful in England, already are under serious consideration in this country, according to "Science Illustrated". This may prove to be the answer to the parking question here at State.

The Baldwin-Auger automatic car park, in present form, is a push-button affair that can handle up to 19 cars with practically no human effort. This is just a single unit, however. In a large garage or parking area, say English technicians, there could be hundreds of such parks or bays. Each park could be built to handle more or less than 19 cars.

The system is composed of a miniature rectangular railway on two rows of tracks with pairs of connected platforms traveling on them. Each pair of platforms takes a single car. Automatic controls and electric motors shift the platforms.

This may be what Staters are looking for to alleviate the parking congestion, but there is another remedy, taking less space and costing no money. If those students living close to the campus would leave their cars at home and let the commuters use the limited parking space, State's parking question would solve itself.

BOB JAMES LEAVES CAMPUS AFTER FOUR YEARS IN SCA

By DAN WECK

Bob James is leaving the campus of San Jose State college today. He came here in October, 1943, from the campus of the University of New Hampshire, where he had done five years of work with the SCA there.

Since coming to the Spartan campus, the Rev. Robert L. James and his wife, Mary Frances, have taken part in the activities of the SCA groups and worked towards furthering the aims of the campus YMCA-YWCA group, which is a community chest "Red Feather agency."

DARTMOUTH AND YALE

Bob, as he is known to the majority of students on the campus, received his AB degree at Dartmouth and his bachelor of Divinity degree at Yale Divinity school. After that he went to New Hampshire in 1938, and moved to San Jose in 1943. His wife, Mary Frances, known to her friends as "Muff," has been his steady companion and assistant since first they met. Mrs. James has, by her constant concern for the problems of all, and her ready sympathy and sound advice, endeared herself to those students who have had the privilege of knowing her.

While at San Jose State, Bob James started the Freshman Camp, the first one being held in 1944, and developed it into what is considered to be the finest freshman camp in this section of the country. The freshman camps of several coast colleges and universities have been patterned after it.

Two years ago at the Varsity house, and again this year at the Student Center, the Rev. James and the SCA sponsored a Marital Relations' course at San Jose State college, given by Dr. Bertha Mason.

WORK FOR SPARTA

Lion's Den, owned by the San Jose Lion's club, is available for the use of youth groups in and around San Jose, but it was Bob James and the SCA who were given the responsibility of scheduling and maintaining the cabin located in Alum Rock park.

In addition Bob James has, while here, taken an active part in the World Student Service drive, been an adviser on the Chapel committee, helped student groups arrange for Asilomar trips. He worked with many of the SCA committees, notably for the "SCA Newsletter," and the committee for "Peace and Public Relations." He also helped start regular weekly chapel services and the annual Easter sunrise services held in the Quad.

Last year he helped students arrange a discussion, "Motivations in Education for Democracy," in which Prof. Max Radin, Dr. Harry Rathbun, and Dean Owens, respectively, of California, Stanford and Santa Clara law schools. He has in the past assisted in arranging for such notable speakers as: Ruth Seabury, Jack Anderson, Henrietta Rosenberg, a Dutch refugee, Giovanna Ribet, an Italian student member of the WSSF, and Joyce Roberts, national co-chairman of the National Intercollegiate Christian Council.

OTHER SERVICES

Off campus, the popular Bob has worked with the Easter Sunrise Service Planning committee, of which he was chairman, the Council of Civic Unity, National Conference of Christians and Jews, been dean of the Institute of International Relations at Mills college, California, and the adviser to the Youth committee of the San Jose Council of Churches.

He leaves San Jose State to become Associated Regional Director of the Middle Atlantic States Student Christian movement.

CHECK the BALANCE

Prominent Spartan Dirk Arrowsmith checks his Spaulding Kro-Bat for balance before stepping onto the court for a brisk set of doubles in the warm afternoon sun. His partner—fair but formidable, who has just taken leave for the powder room—will have checked and rechecked the balance of Arrowsmith's premeditated, yet casual, tennis togs. His Fashion Hill "Tournament" sweater is held in reserve to thwart the evening breeze. Shorts and T-Shirt, by McGregor, are white and light. Let old Sol play the devil with the rest of the sportsters, Arrowsmith is lettuce crisp in cool, smart whites.

Student Exchange Plans to Operate Two More Days

Today and Wednesday will be the last times students may pick up books or money left with the Student Book Exchange, it was announced by Harold Riddle and Dale LaMar.

Riddle and LaMar are members of Alpha Phi Omega which operates the non-profit service project.

"The booth will be set up outside the Morris Dailey auditorium," states Riddle. "It will be open from 10:30 to 1:30. We hope to clear up all unclosed accounts and then tabulations may be made and plans for next quarter's exchange may be formulated.

"Students who are unable to get to the booth either today or Wednesday should see Abner Fritz in the Publications office any afternoon next week, and payments will be arranged. However we hope that as many of you as possible will pick up your money today from 10:30 until 1:30," concludes Riddle.

Art Club Sets New Dance Site

Alpha Gamma, San Jose State college art club, has changed the location of their annual arts ball from the San Jose Country Club to the Adobe Creek Lodge. It will be held on May ninth.

The theme of the event will be surrealism, and the bids designed by Ellen McBride, will carry out this theme. The entertainment will be a takeoff on Shostakovitch's famous "Age of Gold" ballet.

The ballet will be performed by Ella Marie Scholes, Dick Oliver, Ed Kincaid, and Barbara Jensen, with the choreography being done by Ed Kincaid, who did the choreography for this year's "Reveries."

KAPPA SOCIETY STARTS ON OWN

Monday night's Student Council meeting saw the campus group, Pi chapter of Kappa Kappa Sigma, a national sorority, request and receive permission of the Student Body to change its name to the Kappa Society and to withdraw from the national group.

Marge Cain, president of the re-named Kappa society, was senior member of the group which presented the petition to the Student Council.

Two weeks previously the group had received the permission of the national group to withdraw on the basis of the fact that they were the only college group in the sorority.

Flyers Soar To Beach Breakfast

Breakfast on the beach at Capitola is planned by members of the SJS Flying Club for Sunday, May 18, according to Betty Doyle, club secretary. Students not members of the club may join the flight.

The procedure, according to Miss Doyle, is for each person to arrange with a fellow-passenger and reserve a plane at any local airport. Operators charge only for flying time. Planes will take off from San Jose at 7 and return at 10.

Though all arrangements are made independently, Miss Doyle stated, participants should notify the club officers a week before the flight, and occupants of each plane should bring milk or coffee; food will be provided by the club. On landing at Capitola the group will gather for breakfast on the airport's private beach.

Link Re-Elected Prexy Vet Frat

George Link was reelected president of Mu Delta Pi at their meeting last Tuesday evening.

Other club officers elected during the meeting are: Dave Cassin, vice-president; George Willey, secretary; Barton Johnston, treasurer; and Daniel Weck; sergeant at arms.

May 10 was set as the date for a barbecue which will be held at Alum Rock park. Don Pulver was appointed chairman of the Spardi Gras costume committee and Bart Johnston is in charge of the concession.

The group also volunteered their services to help deliver the Spartan Daily each morning. Members who are on this committee include Rex Parrish, Weck, Cassin, and Pulver.

Plans to hold their regularly quarterly dance were put off until the next meeting which will take place Tuesday, April 29.

JV'S NEED MILERS; TO MEET LINCOLN HIGH ON TUESDAY

"Five minute" men are wanted as milers for the junior varsity track squad which has about 30 aspirants and a tentative date with Lincoln high school on Tuesday, according to Coaches Woody Linn and Verne Cooley, who are in charge of the squad.

SPARTANS LOSE ANOTHER RUNNER; MEET TOMORROW

Another casualty hit the Spartan track team yesterday when Gene Haynes, Spartan distance runner, reported in to the college Health cottage. With Haynes out of the line-up, Coach Bud Winter will again have to juggle his starters in tomorrow's double dual meet with San Diego and Santa Barbara on Spartan field at 2 o'clock.

Murray Collins, who was expected to fill in for Thelno Knowles in the 880 yard run, will probably have to take Haynes' place in the mile run. This will leave Wally Cole, Gaucho half-miler, and Ray Malcolm, of the Aztecs, an almost clear field in the half mile event.

BEST RACES

The two most outstanding races of the meet will probably be in the 440 yard run and the two mile. In the quarter mile Santa Barbara's Stan Moore will be hard pressed by Fred Mangini, who only recently returned to the line up for San Jose, and gave a good performance in his only outing last week at Stanford.

In the gruelling two mile event Merle Knox, who won his race last Saturday by 125 yards over

Special meeting of all varsity track team members today at 12:30 in the small gym.

Stanford's highly touted Frank Ganahl, will be pressed by San Diego's Tom Rice. The latter has a mark of 9:58 this year while the best Knox has done without pressure is 10:03.8.

Another San Diego man, Bill Morales, could give Bob Likins trouble in the javelin throw. Morales has a mark of 183 feet 9 1/2 inches this year, but has done better.

BROAD JUMPER

San Diego's most outstanding performers will be Willie Steele, one of the best broad jumpers on the coast and also number one sprinter for the Aztecs, and Jack Kaiser, who is favored to win the high hurdles, besides pick up points in the pole vault and high jump.

The Spartans are still favorites to win over both San Diego and Santa Barbara and the Aztecs are slight favorites over the Gauchos.

SPARTANS, INDIANS IN GOLF CRUCIAL

The San Jose State college golf squad will make a bid for national prominence today at 1:30 when they meet the Stanford Indians in a dual match over the San Jose country club course.

Coach Bill Hubbard's team will be at full strength for the red and white this afternoon. Eli Bariteau and Bob Harris will be eligible to compete today and should make the locals a little better than even money. Morgan Fottrell, northern California intercollegiate champ, Warren MacCarty, Ross Smith, and Rusk Shepherd round out the remainder of the Spartan lineup.

Fottrell defeated Ernest Kellburg in the finals of the NCI, and MacCarty knocked off Bob Cardinal, another Indian ace, in easy fashion in the quarter-finals of that tourney.

A win over the men from the Farm today will give the Spartans the inside track to the NCAA tourney in Ann Arbor, Michigan this summer. Stanford has represented the Pacific Coast in this tournament numerous times, and have an enviable record.

Tom Lamby, Bob Rosburg, together with Kellburg and Cardinal, and Ed Roskranz make up five of the Stanford team, with one player as yet unknown.

BUSY NETMEN MEET USF TODAY; SFS TOMORROW

Coach Ted Mumby's varsity netmen invade San Francisco this afternoon where they will vie with the University of San Francisco Dons in a tennis match.

The Spartans are seeking to reverse the 5-4 defeat handed them by the Dons in their encounter here two weeks ago. This was the closest margin that any team has approached the undefeated Dons this season.

The Hilltoppers are led by Harry Likas, who ranks 15th nationally, and is one of the best tennis players on the coast. Their number two man is Harry Roche, who practically beat the Spartans singlehanded as he won both his singles and doubles matches.

The Spartans' Captain Gene Franco should do well today, as he has improved greatly his net play, and his services are steady and strong. Greg Sargent and Dave Parnay have won their second straight singles matches, while Don McKenzie also won his match after losing close singles match to the Menlo Oaks last week.

The Spartans get very little rest this week-end as they play host to the strong San Francisco State college squad tomorrow morning. Next week, the varsity city squad face a long road trip, as they leave here Tuesday and won't return until Sunday. On Wednesday, they face the Santa Barbara Gauchos, and then go on to Ventura, where they will participate in the traditional three day Ojai Valley Tennis tournament.

MAGAZINE ASK FOR STRICTER SPORTS

Policing agencies for both college and professional sports to supplement commissioners "with absolute authority", are essential to keep sports clean, according to an article titled "The Gambler's Fix Menaces Sports", appearing in the LOOK magazine released nationally this week.

College sports, although stricter since the Brooklyn college basketball scandal, need the effective safeguard of a commissioner with the "uncompromising temper of the late Kenesaw Mountain Landis", backed by absolute authority, says a press release.

LOOK isn't the only national publication which has taken sports to task in the last few months. Sportscaster Bill Stern asks, "Should College Athletes Be Paid?" and ventures the negative answer in the current issue of

SWIMMERS SEEK FOURTH WIN OF SEASON TODAY

San Jose's varsity swimming team will go to Moraga this afternoon at 4 o'clock to meet the St. Mary's Gaels in a return match. The Spartans downed the Gaels earlier this year by a 64-11 score and are favored to bring home win number four tonight.

At the previous meeting in the local pool the Gaels picked up only one first place when Bob Schultz outswam San Jose's Hugh Wood in the 220 yard freestyle.

San Jose will be in top shape for today's meet with only Leo Gaffney missing from the lineup that defeated the Gaels earlier. However, Pat McConnell took second behind Gaffney in the diving here and is capable of taking over the top spot at Moraga.
